

Anyone for Drama?

Feeling fed up and weary of the “New Normal”?

Why not get together on Zoom and read some sketches and short plays?

We can have a laugh and it's great to see new faces albeit on the screen, and meet with other ICA members from around the country.

It will lift your spirits.

It doesn't matter if you have experience in drama or have never been involved.

If you are interested contact Hilda on hderoiste@gmail.com for more information